G. A. R. to Philadelphia.
The prospects are that Wheeling and West Virginia will send a very large delegation to the Philadelphia encampment of the G. A. R., which opens on Monday, September 4. A committee is now negotiating with the railroad, and it is likely that a special train for the West Virginia posts will be run through to Philadelphia from Wheeling, probably on the Baltimore & Ohio, whose route is through the state.

TWO RELEASED.

Chief of Police Clemans Asks for Resignations of two Men.

ARE GARDNER AND MARSHALL

And Their Dismissal has Brought out a Host of Aspirants for Their Places. The Vacancies are to be Filled in a day or Two—Details of the Matter Were Difficult to Arrive at.

Late Tuesday night, Chief of Police Clemans asked for and received the resignations of two of his officers. Although this action was not made known to the press, the news spread rapidly in certain quarters yesterday morning, and the result is another demonstration of the power of a petty public office to attract aspirants. Throughout the day Chief Clemans was besieged with applications, and, in addition to the scores of applicants, probably a hundred or more friends importuned the chief to look with favor upon their respective candidates.

The officers dismissed are Alex. Gardner, colored, and William Marshall, both of the Second ward. Details of the causes that lead to their dismissal were difficult to obtain, but in Officer Gardner's case he is alleged to have played on the piano in an Alley C house a few nights ago after Officer Walker had called at the place and ordered the "madam" to close down the music, in accordance with instructions from the chief, to the effect that there should be no piano playing after midnight.

In the case of ex-Officer Marshall it is alleged that his dismissal was brought about by the fact that he was off his beat in the Second ward, during a considerable period one day during the past week.

DUMPED INTO WHEELING.

Another Instance of the "Kindness" Neighboring Towns Feel for Wheeling—A Remedy Needed.

Another instance of the practice suburban towns have of shipping, to Wheeling the injured and needy was afforded yesterday evening, much to the indignation of the Wheeling authorities, although there seems at present to be no apparent panacea for the ill.

During the afternoon a sick hobo got off a freight train at Benwood Junction, and then staggered onto a porch in a nearby house. The inmates communicated with Dr. Alley, Benwood's health officer, who hurried around in an attempt to secure quarters for the wayfarer, but in the meantime the doctor was called out of town. Then some other parties shipped the poor fellow to Wheeling on a street car, giving him a dime.

He was instructed to get off the car at Sixteenth and Market streets, and then visit the city building. Owing to his weakened condition the tramp was taken in charge by Officer McCausland, who deposited him in the lock-up waiting room. The stranger was about eighteen years old, quite boyish in appearance, and gave his name as Victor Whipple, of Springfield, Ill. He had been "on the road" for six months, and asserted that his father is the Springfield chief of police. On his arrival and after hearing his story, Dr. Alley, denied having assisted the man to Wheeling, and added that all he did was to examine him to see if he was suffering from a contagious disease. Young Whipple was taken in the ambulance at a late hour to the North Wheeling hospital.

THE PIANOLA AND THE BUSINESS MAN.

The active man of business does not have sufficient leisure to give much enough time to learn to play, or to keep up this practice if he has taken lessons when younger; he is therefore entirely dependent upon the performance of others for any music he may desire to hear.

For people in this situation the Pianola is especially adapted. The knowledge necessary to enable a person to play is so slight, that any one can master the instrument within a few days' practice. Your mood can then dictate your selections.

Everything we say about this wonderful instrument is absolutely true.

You are cordially invited to come and hear it.

Special Pianola Recital Friday afternoon at two o'clock, free to all.

A Word and a Blow, and the blow comes first. We've indiscriminately cut the price of about one hundred of our finest Men's Spring and Summer Suits. The cheapest of them are worth $12.50, and many come out of our $15 grades, but no matter which, help yourselves from the cream of the suit stock at $8.88. $8.88. $8.88. $8.88.

It's a burning shame to bend them to any such price, for it doesn't much more than pay for the needle and thread work on them, but there's no sentiment in business. Duty is duty—and we live up to our policy not to permit one season to lap over into the next—no matter what it costs or what the consequences may be. If you want one of the best suits you ever wore for the price, then don't miss this sale.

We continue this week our special Trouser Sale. Hundreds sold last week, hundreds must be sold this week.
